Dr. Daughter,

Bangor
3583.

I have taken the pleasure of addressing you with these few lines in hope that you are well as we remain at present, we were very happy to learn from Mrs. Pary that you are comfortable in your situation, which I hope you will keep and be a good girl, and look after yourself in a strange place. I don't know yet whether I can come this year or not to Manchester, but if I will be coming I shall come in about a month if not I will be coming in about in spring next. your Aunt. is well and still at this duties and the family at Enniskillen are all well

Your Sister Sidney and the family are all well and she has a very fine little girl she married a very wealthy Bachelor and she lives very comfortable in the same house and carries on the same business and employs 3 or 4 girls and Mary is going there to her next winter. They are well at Gurga.
Ellin and Margaret was over this summer they are very much grown. I was much surprized that you did not come home when your family was away this summer.
I hope you will take care with your money and not spend them for nonsense and I hope you will have a large sum against I will see you again

John is in school in Liverpool ~~in school~~ ~~and~~ Give my best respect to John Jones and his mother, and to Robert Parry and Ellen Parry Your Brother Thomas is at home at present but he intends to go to Edinburgh to the College in November next. ~~He~~ ~~has~~ plenty to do, and will earn enough of money against then to go to the college.
Mary and Margaret. Remembers to you Hannah, Owens family are all with and desires to be remembered to her. Yours.
Brother Thomas sends his best love to you No more at present from Your Affectionate Father
