

Bangor

3588

University College London. Jan^{ry} 29th 1842Bangor 3588.

My Dear Sister: I have just now received your letter, when I was just preparing to write this letter for you the postman brought it here. I have been thinking to write to you every week but something or other has been preventing until now. but however I was very glad to find that that you are in very good health, and also happy, and am happy to say it leaves me so at present. I have received a letter from home yesterday and in which I found they were all well, and that my Mother, is better in health this winter than she has almost ever been before. you will be soon to hear that my Aunt Anne Humphreys is very poorly. confined to bed for the last few weeks, and seems not likely to recover. Mother has been there seeing her last week. she thought she was very bad. it seems that all her money are in the hands of Mr Jones. Hypodulus, and I think that she has a very poor chance of getting any of them, as you know he's a very unprincipled man, and she has not a good security for them, so you see that her whole labour will go to him now, she declines making her will ever anything, Margaret was there last week, Mr. Roose of amhwoch, is attending her, he told her that she had "water in the Chest," but I don't believe it, but I hope very much that she will get well. Ryan Jones was at Dylas last week with his vessel, I don't know whether he is courting with Mary, they told me that he has been courting in bed, with Catherine Jones Glyn good-for four nights, I was sorry to hear that there were so many alterations at Gwynch, I have not had a letter from there this little while now, but I hope very much that my Brother and Sister, will keep their place as I am often very much afraid of them to leave, Mrs. Edwards. (Mrs. Jones' niece) from Liverpool was here lately, she came to meet her husband who is a captain of a vessel, she brought me some new cloth from angler, to make a coat, I have been seeing Ellen Owens, of Tynrhos last Monday, she is a cook at Lord. Mortyn, she desires to be kind of

Bangor

3588

Bangor

3588

remembered to you, and she wants you to write her a letter, her address is, Elin Ovens, at Lord - Mortyn, of Seymour Street, Portland Square, London - I go there to see her very often, and have a very good cross ~~letter~~ I try to return you many thanks for the money you sent me, and which, I have received safe. I was very glad to hear that you had so much by you then. I was much afraid that you had sent more than was convenient for you. I have been living on them since and they will last me for about a week more. I have sent home last week for about £2 or 3 more. The Session at the College will be over about the beginning of April, so that I shall be able to pass as a Physician, early next summer, and I shall come and see you by coming home. I have now changed my lodgings, and I live now at No.
 11, Aldersgate Buildings, Aldersgate Street, London, so when you write next you must direct it there - Depon will please to give my best respects to Mr and Mrs Parry, and also to Mr Thomas Parry. You must remember to write again soon, and please to accept at present my most sincere and affectionate regards. From yours ever affectionate Brother Momas

Bangor

3588

Paid

Mrs. Anne Humphreys

1879

Green House

Dr. Coffey Bridge - Manchester

42 R